Tactical Session 7 – Attacking Movement

Learning Outcomes

- 1) Be able to identify quality attacking movement
- 2) Critically analyze high level teams and players and be able to understand performance levels in relation to attacking movement
- 3) Develop knowledge of the game at the highest level

The Session

We will continue watching one of the world cup quarter finals from 2018 with eventual winners France taking on Messi's Argentina! The unique aspect of watching this match is that the camera angle is from above so we can see the entire pitch all the time, this is also known as tactical cam. In this session we will watch the last 22 minutes of the 1st half, answer the following questions on both teams!

- 1) Identify a moment where a player on France makes an intelligent attacking movement to try and get in behind the Argentina back line.
- 2) Identify a moment where a player on Argentina makes an intelligent attacking movement to try and get in behind the France back line.
- 3) Find a moment where an attacking player on either team shows disguise in his movement. For example showing to feet and then spinning in behind.
- 4) Find a moment where an attacking player makes multiple runs. For example a player initially makes a run in behind, then gets back on side and makes a run inside to move into a pocket of space in front of the defenders.
